TGIF Improv Murder Mystery Show

Friday, October 27 in the Esquimalt High School Theatre, 7:30-9:15 PM

Join us for our traditional, 4th annual, long form improvised murder mystery show where even the actors don't know who dunnit. Audience members help play the role of detective in our spooktacular season opener of TGIF Improv at Esquimalt High. Tickets are $5 and doors open at 7 PM.

We are excited to present our second Parents As Career Coaches (PACC) Workshop within our district.

PACC is a free evening workshop for parents of middle and secondary students happening on Thursday, November 2nd, 2017 from 6:30 – 9:30pm at SJ Willis' Auditorium (923 Topaz Ave). PACC workshops have been happening all over the lower mainland for the last four years. Marion Haythorne has been leading these workshops, helping parents assist their children make educational decisions and career choices. Through a variety of interactive exercises, parents explore their own values, interests and skills. Parents, you can then go home and do these same exercises with your children, help them discover their values, interests and skills, and match them to potential education and career pathways.

A short video of the experience can also be seen at the following link:
