

Appeals Process

Applications wishing to appeal Esquimalt's Challenge Application process may do so via email to the Challenge coordinator within 2 weeks of receiving notification of non-acceptance.

Appeals must be submitted with relevant new information about the applicant.

An appeals committee will review the new information and communicate a final decision with family.